

Template letter of intent (commercial)

User notes

This is a simple document to outline the main in principle terms of a proposed commercial relationship. The document is not legally binding (other than the confidentiality, termination, and governing law provisions in part D).

Other than the statement that the document is not intended to be binding and part D, there is no suggested content included – the document is simply a framework for the parties to record the in principle commercial terms that have been agreed, prior to preparing a formal agreement.

Although the letter of intent is non-binding, it can create moral or ethical obligations that are difficult to back away from. It is therefore important not to over-promise, and to set out relevant assumptions.

This document does not include an exclusivity provision – either party is free to enter into negotiations, or contract, with third parties for a similar or competing relationship.

using this template

This front page and the statements in the footer below (in red) are included to assist in the preparation of this document. They are for reference only – you should delete all of this front page and the statements in the footer from the final form of your document.

The use of [square brackets] around black text means that:

- ▲ the requested details need to be inserted
- ▲ there are different options for you to consider
- ▲ the item is optional and you need to consider whether to include it, based on the company's circumstances.

Before finalising your document, check for all square brackets to ensure you have considered the relevant option and ensure that all square brackets have been deleted.

If you delete any section, remember to cross reference check the document.
